NEW BUSINESS

Frank Pflum Resolution

Chairman Jesse acknowledged the recent passing of Board member Frank Pflum. Frank was a long-standing member of the Kalkaska County EDC Board of Directors. Chairman Jesse further acknowledged the Kalkaska County EDC Resolution acknowledging the dedication and commitment Frank provided to the Kalkaska County EDC and the entire Kalkaska Community. Chairman Jesse requested a moment of silence to honor a remember Mr. Pflum.

Kalkaska Chamber of Commerce Building Proposal

Chairman Jesse introduced Traverse City Area Chamber of Commerce President and CEO, Doug Luciani and asked him to provide an overview on the Greater Kalkaska Chamber of Commerce building. Luciani highlighted the recent history of the Kalkaska Chamber and explained how in 2007, the Kalkaska Chamber dissolved and transferred its assets, except for the building, to the Traverse City Area Chamber of Commerce, at the request of the Kalkaska Chamber. He further explained that a holding corporation had been established and the officers of the holding corporation included Luciani, Patrick Dewey and Don Kessel. In 2007 the Traverse City Area Chamber of Commerce agreed to lease the building from the holding corporation for $1.00 per year. Luciani further commented on why the Traverse City Area Chamber of Commerce is no longer going to own the building and asked the Kalkaska County EDC Board if they would be interested in owning the facility. Luciani further stated that the Traverse City Area Chamber of Commerce may lease desk space in the building or develop a kiosk for those individuals or businesses seeking information. The goal is to continue to have the building as an asset for community use. Luciani further explained that a grant has been obtained from Rotary Charities in the amount of $14,500 for building improvements. These grant funds could be transferred to the new owner to use for building improvements.

Chairman Jesse asked if a Baseline Environmental Assessment (BEA) test had been conducted on the site. The site is a former gas station and three tanks were previously removed. It was estimated that a BEA would cost approximately $1,500 but also stated that funds do not have to be expended on a BEA if a BEA is not required.

The Village of Kalkaska made a motion in January, 2011 to not take ownership of the building due to some disgruntled residents not wanting the Village to own another facility and incurring additional costs. Penny Hill, Village Manager of Kalkaska indicated that the Village Council is willing to help wherever they can, but they don't want to be the lead agency on determining the building's future.

Chairman Jesse stated that the Kalkaska County EDC could take the building to ensure that there is not another vacant building in downtown Kalkaska. Luciani stated that the transfer of ownership would be clear of all liens and debts to the new building owner. Chairman Jesse indicated that the Kalkaska County EDC's interest is in covering costs and not necessarily generating revenue. It was estimated that annual taxes on the building are approximately $4,500 per year and that an owner that had tax-exempt status would have its costs reduced by $4,500.

Mike Ascione asked who would be the key contact for day-to-day and week-to-week operations of the building. It was suggested that a building committee be created to develop a plan for this issue. Ascione further asked if Kalkaska Downtown Development Authority (KDDA) funds could be used for the building's administrative expenses. Chairman Jesse indicated that it was his understanding that the KDDA is still paying bond obligations within this DDA district and scheduled to expire in September, 2011. Chairman Jesse further stated that he doesn't believe the KDDA is interested in the building as they do not have an office, and if they had more revenue they would be interested in having an office and hiring a DDA Director. Chairman Jesse also stated that he has recently been appointed to the KDDA and would be attending his first KDDA Board meeting later that evening.

There was additional discussion about the historical overview of the Kalkaska Chamber of Commerce. Lon Husbands indicated that businesses used to feel appreciated and that they felt like their Chamber abandoned them after the merger with the Traverse City Area Chamber of Commerce. Luciani responded by stating the Kalkaska Chamber was incurring more costs than taking in revenues and reminded everyone that it was the leadership of the Kalkaska Chamber that requested they be acquired by the Traverse City Area Chamber of Commerce. Mike Ascione stated that he believes the products, programs and services offered by the Traverse City Area Chamber of Commerce are first rate and that Kalkaska County businesses need to realize and understand the value they are receiving in their Chamber membership.

A discussion ensued regarding potential uses of the building. Ideas ranged from having the Kalkaska Arts Council to for-profit companies becoming tenants of the building. Other ideas ranged from creating an arts and crafts incubator, having exhibits such as Ed Lancer's religious artifacts, hosting Travel Michigan information from MEDC, and creating a consignment sales shop. It was suggested that the Kalkaska County EDC, and others, work with the Kalkaska County Board of Commissioners to lower or eliminate taxes, insurance costs, and other associated building costs if the building were to be owned by the Kalkaska County EDC. It was stated that if the County owned the building, tax-exempt status would be automatic.

Chairman Jesse suggested that the next steps should be to study the amount of required annual expenditures for the building to determine the fixed overhead and to identify possible solutions for staffing the building. Luciani estimated that the annual overhead costs at approximately $6,000 and that the Traverse City Area Chamber of Commerce would commit $3,000 over two years to help the new building owner absorb overhead costs.

Additional steps that were discussed included making a request to the Village of Kalkaska to reconsider ownership of the building and explore the possibilities of the Kalkaska County EDC owning the facility and acting as the new holding company and having the Village of Kalkaska administer and manage the facility. Chairman Jesse indicated that he asked for a legal opinion from Board member Aaron Bowron, who stated that the Kalkaska County EDC By-Laws do not state that the EDC cannot own a building or asset and that the EDC does not need consent on this issue from the Kalkaska County Board of Commissioners.

It was recommended that a committee be formed to explore all options and that the issues addressed at this meeting be discussed further at upcoming meetings of the Village Council (May 9 and May 23), Kalkaska County Board of Commission (May 11), Kalkaska Downtown Development Authority (May 3 and June 7), and the Kalkaska County EDC (June 7).

ADJOURNMENT

Mike Ascione made a motion to adjourn the meeting. The motion was supported by Lon Husbands. The meeting adjourned at 11:56 am.

Respectfully Submitted,
Tino Breithaupt
