In the event the Friend of the Court determines that you do have a court order that may have been violated, written notification will go to both parties, with the other party having 21 days to respond in writing. If resolved between the parties, please call Friend of the Court with the resolution. If not resolved and the other party does not respond, the 46th Circuit Court Make-Up Parenting Time Policy will apply. If not resolved and the other party does respond, the matter may be scheduled before a referee to hear the matter or it may be referred to Community Mediation to resolve the matter.
